

FACTS

WHAT DOES SOUTHWEST CAPITAL BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect, and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- First and last name, address, e-mail, user IDs and telephone number
- Social Security number and income
- Payment history and transaction history
- Payment card expiration date, payment card identification and/or verification numbers
- Overdraft history and checking account information.

When you are no longer a customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business.
